GOOD NEWS:

For unto you is

Luke 2:11

4 thought December 2020

As Jacqui has previously commented it goes on and on...and on...

The widely predicted second wave of covid-19 has reached us and the number of cases recorded and hospitalized is soaring. Just when we were hopeful that we could resume worshipping together, all worship has been stopped again.

Following the success of the Zoom AGM, the church council have debated the possibility of using that method for virtual worship and will be actively pursuing some opportunities.

We look ahead now to Advent, the season of preparation for Christmas. As yet we do not know if we will be able to worship in church together. We may be able to have a Zoom service each Sunday, and make sure that as many people as possible are sent copies, so that all can join in, with or without technology! With a little forward planning, why not make an advent crown So that if we cannot physically be together, at least we could light our candles at the same time.

The four traditional advent themes for the four advent Sundays are:

God's people -The Candle of Hope. Hope is like a light shining in a dark place. ...

The old testament prophets - The Candle of Peace. ...

John the Baptist - The Candle of Love. ...

Mary the mother of Jesus - The Candle of Joy.

According to Wikipedia:

Advent wreaths are circular, representing God's infinite love, and are usually made of evergreen leaves, which "represent the hope of eternal life brought by Jesus Christ". Within the Advent wreath are candles that generally represent the four weeks of the Advent season as well as "the light of God coming into the world through the birth of Jesus Christ" although each of the candles can be attributed its own significance as well. Many Advent wreaths also have a white candle in the centre to symbolize the arrival of Christmastide, sometimes known as the "Christ candle." It is lit on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day. The Christ candle is coloured white because this is the traditional festal colour in the Western Church.

There are traditional prayers to accompany each lighting.

So, we wait, somewhat impatiently, until prudence, and the French Government, decide that it is safe for the resumption of worship without any restrictions.

I commend Psalm 27 to you.

Every blessing,

Hazel

Psalm 27 - King James Version

27 The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

² When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

³ Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

⁴ One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to enquire in his temple.

⁵ For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

⁶ And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

⁷ Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

⁸ When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

⁹ Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

¹⁰ When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

¹¹ Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

¹² Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

¹³ I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

¹⁴ Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE 2020

In one of our best-loved carols, Christina Rossetti situates the birth of Jesus ‘in the bleak midwinter’. She paints a severe and freezing manger scene, with howling wind and deep snow. She represents the frosted earth and water with iron and stone.

From the biblical narrative, it seems unlikely that Jesus was born in the bleak mid-winter, as the shepherds would not be putting their sheep out to pasture in freezing conditions. But that does not stop us gladly enjoying Rossetti’s romantic poetic licence and reminding ourselves that the conditions of the first Christmas were hard, extraordinarily hard by modern standards.

Mary was a young girl giving birth a long way from home. The town of Bethlehem was crowded with strangers registering with the tax authorities of the occupying powers. Mary laid her new-born baby in an animal’s stone feeding trough. And the first visitors were not close family but rough men from the fields.

It is extremely difficult to recover this first Christmas. The festival has become overlaid with medieval nativity scenes and Romantic or Dickensian winter scenes. In the twentieth century, Christmas became the setting of the perfect family gathering. Most significantly, the run up to the commercial Christmas – the ‘golden quarter’ – is now a vital part of the retail industry’s overall wellbeing so that vast sums are expended on advertising to persuade us to acquire more goods and more debt.

But not in 2020. This year it will be very different. Travel bans, lockdowns and quarantines mean it will be harder and perhaps impossible to get together with our loved ones. People are poorer. High streets, at least at the time of writing, are closed in many countries. And even when they re-open, shopping isn’t quite the same when you have to physically distance and wear a mask.

Christmas will be simpler this year. And for many it will be sadder. As Covid-19 has progressed, more and more families have been affected by the virus and its frightening and sometimes long-term symptoms. Some of us have a relative who has been in intensive care, struggling to breathe. Many of us know someone who has very sadly lost their life, and some of us face the first Christmas without someone close to us. This year, perhaps we more intuitively sense the harshness of the manger scene, the cruelty of death, the pain of a bleak mid-winter.

Another well-known – and much older – carol speaks to us about ‘tidings of comfort and joy’. In 2020 we need to hear these tidings. For Christmas is at heart the story of a God who draws near to us in Jesus, sharing the sorrows and joys of human experience. In the mystery of the incarnation, the eternal God wonderfully condescends to be born as a human baby, in the roughest conditions. He is ‘Immanuel’ – the God who is with us.

Whatever conditions you face this Christmas, I hope you will be able to reach out and find the God who is with us. I hope you will take comfort from the presence of God with you, and perhaps also find opportunity to comfort others.

‘God rest you merry’ in modern English means ‘may God grant you peace and happiness’. The unknown author continued:

‘Let nothing you dismay for Jesus Christ our Saviour was born on Christmas Day.
To save us all from Satan’s power
when we had gone astray
Which brings tidings of comfort and joy.’

I wish each of you and your families comfort and joy as we approach this Christmas season.

Churchwardens' Notes for December 2020:

Well we finally managed to hold our AGM last month by using the Zoom platform on the internet and a summary is published elsewhere in Grapevine. Thank you to those who were eligible and able to join the meeting and ratify the elections. We were re-elected as Wardens and Iain and Anne were re-elected to serve for three more years but we now have two vacancies which we would love to fill. Please consider prayerfully if you are being called to fill one of these vacancies. You will be most welcome.

Now ASV has some experience of Zoom (thank you Fiona for your technical expertise) we are in the early stages of considering "Virtual" services for our usual congregations. We will let you know further details by email if we have your contact details on our new membership list. This is the third month we have asked for your details to be sent to us or Chris Green to form a membership list for mailing purposes. Apart from replies from Council members there have only been 9 (nine) replies! Under the Data Protection legislation, this new membership list will be the only way we can legally contact you as by supplying the data you consent to such contact. So PLEASE, if you are a member of our congregations and have not sent in your name, address, email address and fixed and mobile phone numbers, now is the time to do so in order for us to keep you up to date.

This is the December Grapevine so, as it is most unlikely we will be able to meet face-to-face before Christmas, may we wish you a healthy and joyous Christmas - the celebration of the birth of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Summary of Church Annual Meeting (AGM)

Because of the restrictions imposed the COVID-19 pandemic, All Saints Vendée could only hold this year's AGM by using a Zoom platform on the internet. Advance warning was published in the October Grapevine and full details were given in the November Grapevine in a special "Important" box on the first page. The AGM was held on Thursday, 12th November 2020 and 21 people signed in to the meeting with 14 apologies for absence.

- The meeting commenced with an Act of Worship which had been prepared by our Chaplain, Revd. Hazel Door.
- The minutes of the 2019 AGM (held on 28th April 2019) were accepted, approved and will be signed at a later date.
- David Martin and Doug Green had been correctly nominated and agreed to serve as Churchwardens and they were duly elected. They will sign their Declarations when we are able to meet.
- Council Member elections. Anne Condie and Iain McGregor had come to the end of their terms of office but had agreed and been correctly nominated to continue. They were elected to commence new 3-year terms. Mike Mylod had previously indicated that he wished to resign his Council post and the meeting formally recorded a vote of thanks for Mike's work in the past. This leaves two vacancies on Council but no nominations had been received.
- Archdeaconry Synod representatives. ASV are entitled to two lay representatives but only one nomination had been received. Martin Door was duly elected and there remains a vacancy.
- Independent Examiner. Curtis Parkin had agreed to this post during the year, following a resignation, and this had been approved by Council. Curtis was thanked for his work and he had been nominated to continue - the AGM confirmed this appointment.
- All of the reports, which had been received and circulated in advance of the meeting, were received and thanks offered to everyone who had worked for ASV during the year.
- In her closing remarks, Hazel, our Chaplain, spoke of the difficulties we have all experienced in the last year due to the pandemic. We have put on hold the idea of re-starting physical services but with the Zoom platform the possibility of holding virtual services will be explored further.

The meeting held a moment's silence to remember loved ones who have passed away and then the meeting closed with everyone saying together The Grace.

Subsequent to the AGM, a Council meeting has been held and elections held to appoint officers. A full list of Council members is as follows.

Revd. Hazel Door, Chaplain and President
David Martin, Churchwarden and Lay Vice-Chairman

Grapevine Treasurer's report:

October 2020:

Income: 792.00 €

Expenditure: 901.42 €

The balance, therefore, is negative for the month: -109.42 €

Overall, this year, we have been losing approximately 300 € per month, and we really need some more people to join the Planned Giving scheme, or to make a donation if they feel able.

Keep healthy, keep isolated, and keep talking to each other!

Iain McGregor
(Treasurer)

through the Standing Order Scheme

ADVANTAGES

If you set up a standing order (virement) through your French bank, online, it is cost-free. If you need help doing this, please just ask me, or other council members.

You stay in total control of what you give – the standing order (virement) can be changed at any time, but only by you!

Only the treasurer knows how much you give per month.

You know what you are giving, and exactly when the money comes out of your account, and so your budgeting is much easier.

If you complete a French tax form, then you will get a rebate of 66% at the end of each financial year in which you have made a contribution. That means that a monthly virement of 30€ per month, will only cost you 10€ after tax. A monthly virement of 60€ will only cost you 20€ etc!

If your French tax bill is small, then you will pay no tax at all.

ASV can plan ahead much more effectively, as it knows what contributions are coming in, rather than guessing who is going to be at church!

If you would like to physically put something into the collection plate each service, then there should be small cards which you can collect on your way into church, which you can put into the collection plate as it is passed round.

DISADVANTAGES:

I can't think of any, so why not come and join the party!

British residents:

If you do not have a French bank account, but would like to support the work of ASV on a regular basis, then please contact me, and I can help you. Please note, you cannot use tax-efficient giving in both France and the UK.

A very big "Thank You" goes to Joan Stewart for the years she has spent organising events and opening up her home for this very successful group of friends. She is passing on the mantle to Maggie Calton and me, when meetings can again resume. As Maggie declares that she is not a "sewer" we have decided to hold the craft meetings at her home whilst I will host the sewing sessions. I doubt if things will resume this year so please watch next year's Grapevine for further details, by which time we hope the present Covid problems will have considerably reduced.

God bless you all,

HAVE YOU APPLIED FOR YOUR NEW EHIC CARDS?

If you live in France, and currently have a EHIC card issued by the U.K. government, then you need a new card from JANUARY 2021. The following information has been shared by the RAFA Sud-Ouest.

"You may not be aware but if you live in France and have a current EHIC issued by the UK Government, it has just been announced that you will need a new card valid from 1 January 2021. Unlike the old system you can order the new EHIC online. The new card will be valid for all EEA countries and Switzerland but not France for obvious reasons. Here is the link and good luck:

<https://www.nhs.uk/using-the-nhs/healthcare-abroad/apply-for-a-free-ehic-european-health-insurance-card/>

Apply for a free European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) - NHS

A European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) gives you the right to access state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in another EU country, Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein or Switzerland. On this page you can find out: if you're eligible to apply for a new UK EHIC valid from 1 January 2021 how to ... www.nhs.uk

If the link does not work, just use your search engine to find EHIC applications. Chris and I have applied for ours online and it was, surprisingly, a very straightforward process.

Doug.

(Note: If needed, you can also apply for your EHIC over the phone, by calling the automated EHIC application service on 0044 300 3301350. Jacqui)

IMPORTANT NEWS about the Carte de Sejour

If you are British and plan to continue to live in France then you MUST apply for a new "Titre de Sejour" and be issued with a new "Carte de Sejour" even if you hold an existing 10-year CDS. Not wishing to "re-invent the wheel" I have copied the information published in "Jubilate", the magazine of the Chaplaincy of Christ the Good Shepherd, Poitou-Charentes.

"We expect that by now you will all have heard that it is necessary for every Briton living in France to apply for a new Withdrawal Agreement ("Brexit") Carte de Sejour if you are planning to continue living in France. This applies even if you hold an existing 10-year permission to stay. You must apply before 30 June 2021, so that all the cards can be issued by the 1 October 2021 deadline. The French government have launched an on-line application process.

The French government have advised that they are taking a sympathetic approach and this application process is rather simpler and less demanding than the one used previously. The process does vary depending on whether you already have an existing Carte de Sejour, current or lapsed, and how long you have been resident here (more or less than 5 years).

For those with an existing Carte de Sejour all that is needed at this stage is a digital copy of that existing card and normal personal details.

For others there is a requirement to provide evidence similar to before, for instance about period of residence, income and health cover, depending on circumstance but rather less demanding. BUT YOU MUST apply. The sooner the better. Don't put it off!

You can go about obtaining your residency permit by going to

<https://www.service-public.fr/particuliers/vosdroits/F35032>

OR <http://invite.contacts-demarches.interieur.gouv.fr/BREXIT>.

At the bottom of the first page, CLICK on the Blue (Brexit) Box which says "Accéder au service en ligne"

At the bottom of the next page there is the opportunity to click on a Union Flag in order to get all the information, including the application form, in English.

We hope that this does not prove too difficult for you all to do."

Can I repeat , YOU MUST apply, don't put it off!!!

Doug

As Christmas approaches our thoughts turn to how blessed we are, even in this time of confinement and COVID-19. Now is the time to help others less fortunate. Over the past several years I have used Christmas as a time to fundraise for various UK based charities. Now back in France we have chosen to support the Resto Du Coeur this year, supporting some of the most needy families in our area.

I make felt hanging hearts, all hand sewn, either with a Christmas theme or a variety of other embellishments in a variety of colours. They are perfect as a small gift for your neighbours or friends and are light to post to family in the UK too. Ideal for Christmas, birthdays, get well and even weddings.

Size 8cm x 9cm, ribbon extra.
Cost per heart is €2 each,
Postage would in addition or we are happy to deliver depending how far from us you live!

All money taken will go to Resto...via Mike Mylod who is ASV's representative.
My gift is my time and materials.

Looking forward to hearing from you and getting your orders.

Stay safe and keep well.

A happy and peaceful Christmas to you all, love from
Mair and John Pugh.

Also, we have several "Our Daily Bread" booklets left. If you know anyone who might like one... ask any friends... we are happy to drop them to you or we are happy to post them.

BOOKS!

As many will know Richard and I have run the book-exchange for many years, but the time has come for this to finish. I am intending to put the house on the market next year with a view to moving back to the bosom of the family if and when! Meanwhile I need a new home for all the books and a volunteer to take over the “exchange”

Actually, there is no need to exchange as there are ample to take away! There are many boxes housing fictional paperbacks in alphabetical order by authors. What else does one do in “confinement”? Nigh on a thousand in all and also a small amount of hard backs.

Is this something YOU can do for the Church? Just a matter of bringing one or two boxes along on Sundays when we resume services.

Marian

So christenings just got a lot more fun for priests and vicars

No Nativity this year because the 3 Wise Men face a travel ban. The shepherds have been furloughed. The Inn keeper has shut under tier 3 regulations and had a slump in bookings. Santa won't be working as he would break the rule of 6 with Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Donner and Blitzen. As for Rudolph, with that red nose, he should be isolating and taking a test. 😂😂

"Refugees" by the internet poet Brian Bilston

They have no need of our help
So do not tell me
These haggard faces could belong to you or me
Should life have dealt a different hand
We need to see them for who they really are
Chancers and scroungers
Layabouts and loungers
With bombs up their sleeves
Cut throats and thieves
They are not
Welcome here
We should make them
Go back to where they come from
They cannot

Share our homes
Share our countries
Instead let us
Build a wall to keep them out
